SIMnet

Much of our course content (readings, quizzes, and skills projects) will be completed in SIMnet, the online "lab" provided by McGraw-Hill.

NOTE: I am working to get your access codes for SIMnet. I should have these to you by the end of Tuesday (1/17). Please watch your email for the code and registration instructions. Once you have this code, you will be able to proceed with the Week 1 assignments.

Select SIMnet

Click the 'simnet simgrader' button.

Create a new user account

With the 'No' option selected, provide your First Name, Last Name, your my.lonestar.edu Email, a username and password of your choosing, and your Student ID. Check the 'Terms of Service' checkbox and click 'Create'.

Note: It is important that you use your campus email so that the single sign-on feature of the Campus Gateway works properly.

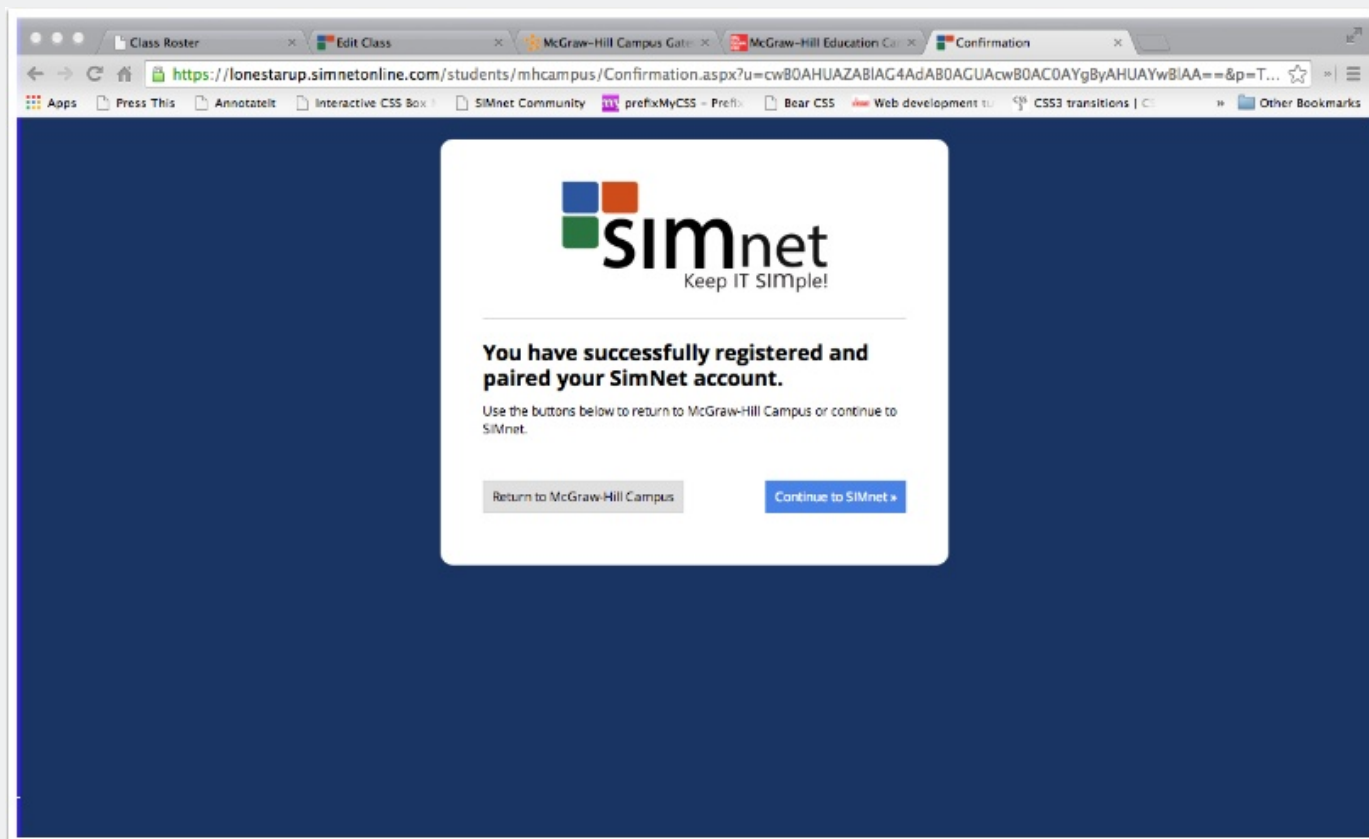

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL https://lonestarup.simnetonline.com/students/mhcampus/userpairing.aspx?email=%20&fname=Student&lname=Test&role=Student&domain_prefix=L.... The page features the SIMnet logo with the tagline "Keep IT SIMPLE!". Below the logo, it asks "Do you have a SimNet login?" with radio buttons for "Yes" and "No". The "No" option is selected. Under the heading "Create New User", there are input fields for "First Name" (Student), "Last Name" (Test), "Email" (bruce.caraway@gmail.com), "Username" (studenttest-bruce), "Password" (masked with asterisks), "Confirm Password" (masked with asterisks), and "Student ID" (empty). Each field has a green checkmark to its right. Below the fields is a checkbox labeled "I have read and accept the Terms of Service", which is checked. At the bottom, there are "Cancel" and "Create" buttons. The "Create" button is highlighted with a red rectangle.

Enter your registration code

If you have a registration code, select 'Yes, I have a code', enter that code and click 'Register'. Otherwise, select the 'Activate Trial' button for temporary access.

The screenshot displays the SIMnet registration process. A modal dialog box titled "Enter a Registration Code" is open, featuring a text input field containing "NWCS" and a blue "Register" button. Below the dialog, the main interface has two buttons: "Yes, I have a code" and "No, I do not have a code". Further down, there is a section titled "Waiting for financial aid?" with the text "You can activate a 21 day free trial for immediate access.¹" and an "Activate Trial" button. A yellow warning box below this states: "¹ Your grades will not be submitted until you enter a registration code." At the bottom, a link for "Licensed Products" is visible.
